

Horning, Eleanor

Eleanor Horning Jan 17-45

After eight months in the service, WAC Pvt. Eleanor Horning has arrived from Ft. Des Moines, Iowa, on a 15-day furlough, and is visiting with her sister, Mrs. LaMar Lauritzen, 228 Fifth street. Before entering the service, Pvt. Eleanor resided here with her sister and was employed by the Poultry Producers of Central California. She is a graduate of the Pleasanton high school, and before going back to her post will, with Mrs. Lauritzen, visit her aunt, Mrs. Flora Cervantis, and friends and schoolmates at Livermore.

On duty in the bond and insurance department of Ft. Des Moines, Pvt. Horning, who has applied for overseas duty, has passed her overseas physical tests, and has great hopes of being sent abroad. She is highly interested in the WAC and takes to her duties with enthusiasm.

* * *

Eleanor Horning June 30th
FORT DES MOINES, Ia., June
30.—Eleanor M. Horning, sister of Mrs. Lamar Lauritzen of 228
Fifth St., Petaluma, has been promoted to the grade of Tec. 5, in the Women's Army Corps, according to an announcement from
First WAC training center at Fort Des Moines where she is stationed.

Visits Petaluma

July 24-45

T/5 Eleanor Horning of the WAC's stationed at Des Moines, Iowa, has arrived here on a 21-day furlough to visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Lauritzen, at 228 Fifth street. She has been stationed at Des Moines for the past year. During her stay here she is being greeted by many of her friends.

Eleanor Horning

2/6/46

WAC Sgt. Eleanor Horning who has been transferred from Fort Des Moines to the outgoing patients' clinic at Letterman hospital, San Francisco, is here on a 15-day furlough visiting with her sister, Mrs. LaMar Lauritzen, 228 Fifth street. This is the first time she has been here since last July. She has served in the WAC since May 1944. Before returning to her post at Letterman, Sgt. Horning will visit with relatives at Livermore.

Eleanor Horning 5/3/46

Sgt. Eleanor Horning, who has served in the WAC since May, 1944, is home on a 15-day furlough, visiting with her sister, Mrs. Lamar Lauritzen, 228 Fifth street. She expects to return to Letterman hospital in San Francisco on May 7 and two days later will leave for New Jersey to embark for Europe. She expects to be overseas for a year. She was transferred, in February, from Ft. Des Moines to the outgoing patients' clinic at Letterman hospital, where she has served as a receptionist.

Sgt. Horning is enjoying her visit here and on Sunday she visited friends in Richmond. She left for Livermore Wednesday to visit with relatives and friends until the last of the week.

Sgt. Eleanor Horning Writes From Germany

Sgt. Eleanor Horning, of the WAV, who has been stationed with the army intelligence office at Bremerhavon, Germany, for nearly a year, wrote her sister, Mrs. Lamar Lauritzen, of Petaluma, that she had been ill. She was hospitalized for a time but has now recovered and

PETALUMA ARGUS-COURIER

Petaluma, California—Morning Edition

Friday, January 10, 1947.

Page Three

is now spending a 15-day furlough on a Swiss-Rome tour. service for three years and she hopes to be home by the latter part of June.

Sgt. Horning has been, in the

Sgt. E. Horning 7-17-48 En Route Home

Sergeant Eleanor Horning who joined the WACS during the war and who for the past two years has been stationed at Brenerhazen, Germany, is enroute home and expects to reach Petaluma in two weeks, where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. LaMar Lauritzen. During her stay in Europe Sergeant Horning has visited in Italy, Denmark, Scotland, France, Belgium and other countries. She is anxious to get home and a warm greeting is awaiting her from her relatives.